YOUR CHINESE WILL IMPROVE BY LEAPS & BOUNDS

Make exceptional gains in your Chinese language skills whether your studies are just beginning or you have practiced for years. Your intensive language courses include core classes to practice grammar, as well as drill, one-on-one and one-on-two classes to focus on spoken fluency and topics of your own interest. By working with some of the best Chinese instructors in the field, you see significant language gains, even if your Chinese is already advanced. You also uphold a full-time language pledge as you experience the history and culture of Beijing: explore the Forbidden City, roam around the 798 Arts District, visit a café hidden away in a hutong, take a walk around the lake at the Olympic Forest Park.

The key to engaging Chinese culture is through Chinese people. It is very difficult to appreciate the true depth and diversity of Chinese culture and people without challenging yourself to live alongside native Chinese people.

— Mahdi Molla, George Washington University, Spring 2018
For those who don’t want to choose between intensive language learning and an internship abroad, there’s CET Taiwan. Small class sizes and passionate instructors provide you with the knowledge and tools for success, while local immersion—a custom internship placement, Taiwanese roommates, and daily life in Taiwan—unlocks unlimited opportunities to actively use your Chinese outside the classroom. And with Taipei’s diverse job market, you can gain international work experience in private, civil, or government sectors. So whether you’re organizing a roundtable discussion for the Democratic Progressive Party or growing your digital marketing skills at Geber Consulting, you go home with sharpened language skills and the international experience to set you and your résumé apart from the rest.

LOCAL ROOMMATES

You share an apartment with CET students and Taiwanese roommates. This instant network of support gives you friends for late-night study sessions, weekends at the hot springs in Yilan, or even political discussions over tea atop Maokong Mountain.

ACTIVITIES & EXCURSIONS

We take you on a weekend excursion to Taroko Gorge, the “Grand Canyon of Taiwan.” Visit a Buddhist monastery and share a vegan lunch with the monks. Watch the sunrise over the beach. Hike along a river canyon. Stay overnight in a homestay at a local village.

The weekends are yours: see Taiwan’s Little League team in action. Check another night market off your list. Hop a quick flight to explore Shanghai or board a train to see even more of Taiwan.

Middlebury College, in cooperation with CET, offers the Middlebury School in China—the gold standard of Chinese language programs. At each program, you take an intensive curriculum that gives your Chinese the personal attention it needs. Design your own one-on-one tutorial, choose two electives, and take a core course that gets you out of the city. You also live with a local roommate, uphold the legendary Middlebury Language Pledge®, and participate in a Traveling Seminar that gets you out of the classroom to practice your Chinese where it really matters.

Learning, speaking, and reading Chinese helped me grow as a thoughtful student. I can think more critically about world events and history, as well as foreign relations. I never would have been able to reach the depth of this knowledge and understanding without having been here.

— Anne Townsend, Middlebury School in China: Beijing, Kenyon College, Spring 2019
BEIJING

Experiencing Beijing is crucial if you’re building a China career. With its focus on political science, economics, and the arts, this program includes visits to startups, attendance at a performance of Peking Opera, and a Traveling Seminar to Xi’an.

KUNMING

In the sunny city of Kunming, your studies will focus on anthropology, social sciences, and environmental sciences as you improve your Chinese language. Experience a different pace of Chinese life when your Traveling Seminar takes you to the rural areas of Yunnan Province.

HANGZHOU

Explore the arts, literature, and Chinese culture as you perfect your language skills in Hangzhou. Travel to a rural area on the outskirts of Hangzhou for a week-long homestay and conduct field studies on issues that affect the local community.

SUMMER IN CHINA

CET BEIJING IN THE SUMMER

A full load of intensive Chinese language classes alone could transform your Chinese. But why limit yourself? This program gets you out of the classroom and into the vibrant world of Beijing. Discuss political reform with Chinese university students. Befriend the owner of your favorite noodle shop tucked away in the hutong (alleys). Get so lost in conversation with the person next to you on the bus that you miss your stop. Then tell your Chinese roommate all about your bus adventure as you’re hiking along the Great Wall.

CET KUNMING IN THE SUMMER

Spend your summer in the “City of Eternal Spring.” At CET Kunming, you enjoy the beautiful weather and tree-lined streets of the city. You study as much Chinese as you would in one year at a US university. And you live with a local roommate. Your full-time language pledge and fast-paced classes are intense, but you walk away with strengthened Chinese skills and cultural knowledge. When you’re not in class, explore Kunming by bike, take a walk around Green Lake, or take part in CET excursions to Dali and Xizhou to take in the beauty of the region.

ADMISSIONS, TRANSCRIPTS & HOST UNIVERSITIES

CET partners with Capital Normal University (Beijing), Harbin Institute of Technology (Harbin), Donghua University (Shanghai), Yunnan University (Kunming), and National Taiwan University (Taipei). CET and the partner institution jointly issue a transcript listing each course taken with the corresponding grade earned and total contact hours. Alternatively, you can elect to have CET’s school of record, the University of Minnesota, issue an official transcript for an additional fee.

CET’s admission requirements include an online application form, a transcript, a faculty recommendation, and a recommendation from your study abroad office. Other materials, including a valid passport, will be required upon admission. For more information, visit, www.cetacademicprograms.com/college-study-abroad.

WHO IS CET?

CET Academic Programs is a study abroad organization that has been developing and operating innovative educational programs abroad since 1982. Originally “China Educational Tours,” CET began operations in Beijing, later expanding to other locations around the world. Today, CET offers a varied portfolio of semester, summer, and customized programs around the world for college, high school, pre-college, and gap year students.

CET is known for strong academics, professional program management, a nimble and collaborative approach to partnerships, and supportive student services. Through elements such as field-based course components, internships, and housing with local roommates, CET strives to integrate students into the local community and facilitate lasting relationships with hosts. As an environmentally conscientious organization, CET aims to adopt sustainable measures across its operations. And through its commitment to inclusion, CET seeks and encourages the participation of students from diverse backgrounds, ensuring a welcoming, hospitable program environment that promotes student learning.
CET SCHOLARSHIPS

We are committed to increasing access to study abroad. We offer over $400,000 in scholarship awards each year, and awards are intended to alleviate student financial burden.

WHAT WE OFFER

NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIP: For students with demonstrated financial need, priority given to students eligible for Pell Grants. Awards range from $500 to $1,500.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION SCHOLARSHIP: For first-generation college students and students from minority groups. Priority given to students who also demonstrate financial need. Two awards of $2,000 each are given in fall and spring; two awards of $1,500 are given in summer.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE SCHOLARSHIP: For students with a GPA of 3.5 or higher. Two awards of $1,500 each are given in fall and spring; two awards of $1,000 are given in summer.

For deadlines and more information, visit www.cetacademicprograms.com/college-study-abroad/scholarships.

CET & FUND FOR EDUCATION ABROAD

CET is a Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) Access Partner. FEA provides grants and scholarships to US students who are traditionally underrepresented in education abroad. CET applicants are eligible to apply for CET Access Partner scholarships through FEA. Awards can range from up to $1,250 for summer programs, up to $5,000 for semester programs, and up to $10,000 for academic year programs.
