Total Hours: 168

Recommended Credits: 10

Primary Discipline: Japanese Language

Language of Instruction: Japanese

Prerequisites/Requirements: Successful completion of one year of Japanese, JP111 or JP113, OS / LANG 150. Final placement at discretion of Academic Director.

Description

This course is designed to build on the fundamentals with a wide range of vocabulary, complex grammatical structures, and various levels of formality and politeness. It integrates the study of both formal and informal and written and spoken language, through listening, speaking, and reading exercises. The focus is on communicative competence and the completion of tasks, both in the classroom and the surrounding environment, involving interactions with native speakers of Japanese.

The course includes:

- 1.) A series of lessons that target the colloquial, situation-based language needed for adjusting to daily life in Japan. Each lesson involves a series of linguistic/content-focused tutorials, an immersion activity and assignment, and an assessment. These lessons meet during the first week.
- 2.) A regular textbook-based curriculum.
- 3.) One-on-one lessons.

Objectives

During this course, students are able to:

- Read, write, and use at least 350 kanji in a variety of contexts.
- Communicate comfortably and express themselves in everyday social situations.
- Have a familiarity with various aspects of Japanese culture, and function in both formal and informal social interactions with Japanese native speakers on a range of topics.
- Attempt the Japanese Language Proficiency Test level N4 (old level 3)

Course Requirements

Active participation is essential in this course. Students are expected to attend each class and field-based course component as outlined in the CET Attendance Policy. Students are expected to read all assigned materials before the relevant class session and come prepared to participate thoughtfully in class discussions. Graded assignments include:

- Homework: Multiple homework assignments are provided for each chapter and additional independent preparation and review is expected. Students are expected to submit homework at the beginning of class.

CET Syllabus of Record

- Quizzes: At the beginning of each Grammar/Conversation class, a short grammar quiz is given. It is not graded but included in class performance/participation points. Vocabulary and Kanji quizzes are given as scheduled and graded.
- Tests/Examinations: Students take three written tests, there is one test every three chapters.
