STUDY. INTERN. LIVE IN PRAGUE.

If you're looking for the beauty, romance and history of old Europe, look no further. Prague is centrally-located, affordable, and full of charm. Learn more about Central Europe in your core course and during the Traveling Seminar during which you discover the Czech Republic, Poland, Austria, and Hungary. Then, choose other electives from our long list to fulfill major requirements, pursue an interest in film or history, or immerse yourself in Czech culture. You can also opt to intern in Prague and add to your professional portfolio. This flexible program gives you freedom to pursue your interests and explore Europe your way.

ACADEMICS

ONE CORE COURSE

LOCAL ROOMMATES

- You share an apartment with other CET students and possibly a Czech roommate. You are close to cafés, public transportation, downtown, and parks—after all, Prague was recently named the greenest city in the world.
- Czech roommates help you get to know the real Prague. They might take you for a hike in the countryside, show you how to cook Czech food, or take you to their favorite cafés in the city.

“Czech roommates are an extremely helpful asset to the program. I would not have adjusted to life in Prague as easily without them. Navigating the Czech language was much easier with the help and encouragement of Czech roommates.”
