

CET INTERNSHIPS

BRIDGING THEORY AND PRACTICE

Bring together the best of academic and experiential learning abroad with an internship. CET internships combine your professional goals with your academic interests. Through immersion in a professional context and hands-on engagement in an organization, you're able to test out the theories you've learned in the classroom, practice your target language, and gain valuable work experience.

INTERNATIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Credit-bearing internships are available on the following programs in the Fall, Spring, and Summer. Don't need the credit? Intern in the summer and opt for a not-for-credit experience.

CET Prague

CET Shanghai

CET Taiwan

IN THE CLASSROOM MEETS ON-THE-JOB

Your internship course puts your internship placement into context. Readings unpack larger cultural and theoretical issues, and class sessions provide a space to discuss, reflect, and learn from each other's work experiences. This reflection allows what you learn in the classroom to complement your hands-on work...and what you learn on-the-job to inform your research papers and class discussions. Not-for-credit internship students also get the benefits of this reflection through participation in weekly discussion sessions with on-site staff members.

CUSTOM-FIT PLACEMENTS

CET has extensive connections in each of our host communities, so you'll have great options. We match your interests, major, academic focus, and language skills with internship host needs. Whether you want to intern at The Center for Women's Studies in Amman, Habitat for Humanity China in Shanghai, or The China Post in Taipei, you'll find an organization where you're able to realize your personal, professional, and academic goals.

SUPPORT EVERY STEP OF THE WAY

Once you start your internship placement, we help you navigate the workplace culture and maximize your contributions on the job. Your on-site staff and internship professor are there to help problem-solve any issues that arise. And throughout the semester, you learn to take ownership of your experience as you make connections, learn from your peers, and translate your work into an eye-catching résumé or graduate school application.
