Course Requirements and Credits

CET recommends credits based on each course's level of rigor and number of course contact hours. CET requires that all students attend the program full time and partake in a full load of courses.

Details about program requirements and credit recommendations may be found online at: www.cetacademicprograms.com.

Attendance Policy

CET students are required to attend their class meetings. CET faculty record absences and absenteeism is factored into a student's final course grade. Frequent truancy may result in expulsion from the program.

Quantitative Grading Scale

A+: 98-100%	C+: 77-79%
A: 93-97%	C: 73-76%
A-: 90-92%	C-: 70-72%

B: 83-86%	D: 63-66%
B-: 80-82%	D-: 60-62%
	F: 59% and below

Qualitative Grading Scale

A range: Excellent. Consistently outstanding performance throughout the semester, with plus grades being reserved for superior work that surpasses all standards listed in the course syllabus.

B range: Good. A solid performance that is above average yet may also contain notable errors or shortcomings.

C range: Satisfactory. An average performance wherein the minimum criteria listed in the course syllabus have been achieved.

D range: Minimal pass. Work is seriously deficient in multiple areas: thought, writing, attendance, participation, etc.

F: Failure. Work that fails to meet the minimum criteria in all aspects.

P: Pass. All course requirements have been met. Reserved for a small number of CET courses that are offered pass/fail.

CET Academic Programs

CET Academic Programs is a study abroad organization based in Washington, DC that has been designing and administering innovative educational programs abroad since 1982. Originally "China Educational Tours," CET began operations in Beijing, later expanding to other cities in China and then to other countries around the world. Today, CET offers semester and summer study abroad programs in Brazil, China, the Czech Republic, India, Italy, Japan, Jordan, and Vietnam, as well as short-term, customized programs worldwide. CET is known for high academic standards, innovative approaches to teaching and careful student management. CET programs integrate students into their overseas communities and lead them to create lasting relationships with their local hosts. CET is the only US provider to house its students with local roommates in each of its locations. As an environmentally conscientious organization, CET adopts locally appropriate measures in its centers worldwide to reduce its carbon footprint and contribute to sustainable practices wherever possible. Staffed by over 40 full-time employees in the United States and abroad, CET currently sends around 1000 US students abroad annually.
