Description

This course is designed to develop advanced comprehensive Japanese verbal language skills to interact freely with Japanese native speakers and to enhance reading skills. The course is composed of a regular textbook-based classes and three module classes, discussion/debate, reading novels and communication skills improvement. The goal of the course is to acquire communicative competence through tasks both in and out of the classroom. Conversational use of language in Japanese society is the main emphasis of the course, where language is viewed as social and cultural activity.

Objectives

During this course, students are able to:

- Read, write, and use approximately 1400 kanji in a variety of contexts.
- Interact with Japanese people with near-native fluency.
- Understand Japanese language with complex structure in spoken and written texts.
- Express themselves with sophistication.
- Give presentations about social issues from different cultural perspectives.
- Grasp Japanese culture.
- Read traditional and contemporary Japanese literature independently.
- Summarize important information from articles of Japanese magazines and the news media.
- Attempt the Japanese Language Proficiency Test level N2.

Course Requirements

Active participation is essential in this course. Students are expected to attend each class and field-based course component, as outlined in the CET Attendance Policy.
